Pioneering ERISA 401(k) and ESOP Cases

Whetman v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc., No. MDL 1318 (E.D. Pa.) (Also cited as "In re IKON Office Solutions, Inc. Securities Litigation."). The current wave of 401(k) company stock cases began with Whetman v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc., No. 2-98-CV-89 (D. Utah). In a first-of-its-kind complaint, we alleged that company stock was an imprudent investment for the plan, that the fiduciaries of the plan failed to provide complete and accurate information concerning company stock to the participants, and that they failed to address their conflicts of interest. This case resulted in groundbreaking opinions in the ERISA 401(k) area of law on motions to dismiss, Whetman v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc., 86 F. Supp. 2d 481 (E.D. Pa. 2000); class certification, Whetman v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc., 191 F.R.D. 457 (E.D. Pa. 2000); approval of securities settlements with a carve-out for ERISA claims, In re IKON Office Solutions Sec. Litig., 194 F.R.D. 166 (E.D. Pa. 2000); and approval of ERISA settlements, Whetman v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc., 209 F.R.D. 94 (E.D. Pa. 2002).

The complaint alleged that the Defendants withheld and concealed material information from participants, thereby encouraging participants and beneficiaries to continue to make and to maintain substantial investments in company stock and the plans. The settlement provided for, among other relief, the payment of $69 million in cash and stock to the plan. Judge Joel Pisano approved the settlement on December 12, 2003.

In re Enron Corp. ERISA Litigation, No. H 01-CV-3913 (S.D. Tex.) (Also cited as "Tittle v. Enron Corp."). On September 30, 2003, Judge Melinda Harmon denied Defendants' numerous motions to dismiss in a landmark decision that addressed in detail Defendants' obligations as ERISA fiduciaries, and upheld Plaintiffs' core ERISA claims. See Tittle v. Enron Corp., 284 F. Supp. 2d 511 (S.D. Tex. 2003). Judge Harmon subsequently granted Plaintiffs' motion for class certification and affirmed Keller Rohrback as Co-Lead Counsel. See Tittle v. Enron Corp., No. 01-3913, 2006 WL 1662596 (S.D. Tex. June 7, 2006). Plaintiffs have achieved settlements totaling more than $264 million in cash for the Enron plan participants.

WHEREAS, the above-referenced actions allege breaches of fiduciary duties in violation of ERISA involving the Polaroid Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan"), a retirement plan established and sponsored by Polaroid Corporation ("Polaroid" or the "Company") as a benefit for its employees (collectively, the "ERISA actions"), and such actions involve common questions of law and fact;

WHEREAS, formal consolidation of the ERISA actions for pretrial purposes and appointment of Liaison Counsel and Co-Lead Counsel is appropriate as consistent with the recommendations of the Manual for Complex Litigation -Fourth (2003);

WHEREFORE, the Court hereby Orders as follows:

I. CONSOLIDATION OF RELATED ACTIONS

1. a). Certain Defendants are not willing to stipulate at this time to consolidation of the actions for trial, but have stipulated to consolidation for pretrial purposes only. They shall be referred to collectively as In re Polaroid ERISA Litigation, Master File No. 03 CV 8335 (WHP). P. 42(a), although the Court will determine later in these proceedings whether such consolidation would be appropriate.
- b). All Defendants shall provide a separate statement to the Court on or before June 1, 2004 as to whether they consent to the consolidation of these actions for all purposes, or whether the issue of such further consolidation will be submitted for judicial determination.

As it is in the interest of all parties that only the proper parties are named in the consolidated complaint, the parties should also discuss the initial production of core ERISA documents and information that would enable Plaintiffs to accurately identify the specific persons who serve as plan fiduciaries. Core ERISA documents include, but are not limited to, Plan documents and materials that describe the operation, administration, and management of the Plan; documents that identify the Plan fiduciaries and describe the scope of their fiduciary duties; and board or committee minutes and/or resolutions that pertain to the Plan and show the appointment or removal of Plan fiduciaries or otherwise demonstrate the fiduciary function of the board or any committee.

The Consolidated Complaint shall be the operative complaint and shall supercede all complaints filed in any of the actions consolidated herein. Pending filing and service of the Consolidated Complaint, Defendants shall have no obligation to move, answer, or otherwise respond to any of the complaints in the above-captioned actions herein or any actions subsequently consolidated with them.

The Lead Counsel/Chair of the Executive Committee and defense counsel also shall confer regarding the timing and schedule for briefing of any motion by any defendants directed at the consolidated complaint, and shall submit a proposed schedule for the Court's approval.

The same counsel shall further confer and propose to the Court a mutually agreeable schedule for briefing on issues related to class certification.

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

IN RE:
WILLIAMS COMPANIES
ERISA LITIGATION

} Case Nos. 02-CV-153-H(M)
(Lead Case)

OCT 28 2002 02-CV-285-H(M)
02-CV-289-H(C)

Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' motions to appoint lead plaintiffs and lead counsel.¹ The Court heard argument on the parties' motions at a hearing on August 16, 2002. In accordance with the Court's instructions at the hearing, the parties submitted additional briefing on the following issues: (1) responsibilities of lead and liaison counsel; and (2) compensation structure for lead counsel and liaison counsel. The parties also submitted a Joint Status Report (Docket No. 44), on August 26, 2002, outlining the parties' agreed proposed schedule for certain pretrial dates.

¹ On August 14, 2002, the Court ordered the consolidation of Case Nos. 02-CV-153-H(M), 02-CV-159-H(M), 02-CV-285-H(M) and 02-CV-289-H(C), and directed all future pleadings to be filed in Case No. 02-CV-153-H(M). Before the entry of the Court's consolidation order (Docket No. 41), the parties filed the following motions for the appointment of lead plaintiff and lead counsel:

- Plaintiffs' Joint Motion for (1) Consolidation and Other Case Management Procedures; and (2) Appointment of Co-Lead Plaintiffs and Approval of Their Selection of Lead Counsel and Brief in Support (Case No. 02-CV-153, Docket No. 3; and Case No. 02-CV-159, Docket No. 5), filed on March 29, 2002;
- Brief in Opposition to the Van Nes/Nelson Joint Motion for (1) Consolidation and (2) Appointment of Co-Lead Plaintiffs and In Support of Cross-Motion and Brief for (1) Consolidation and (2) Entry to Separate Pretrial Order (Case No. 02-CV-285, Docket No. 2), filed April 19, 2002; and
- Motion for Appointment as Lead Plaintiffs and In Opposition to the Motions Filed by Phillip Nelson and Emily Van Ness (Case No. 02-CV-153, Docket No. 27; Case No. 02-CV-159, Docket No. 18; Case No. 02-CV-285, Docket No. 26; and Case No. 02-CV-289, Docket No. 20), filed on July 9, 2002.

Pursuant to the entry of this order, these motions are hereby denied as moot.

The Court has carefully reviewed the briefs submitted by the lead plaintiff movants, and, for the reasons set forth below, hereby orders the appointment of Karen Raider, Michael J. Van Sickle, and Kristine Zeigler as lead plaintiffs. The Court further orders the appointment of Lynn Sarko of Keller Rohrback, LLP ("Keller Rohrback") as lead counsel on behalf of the class, and Marc I. Machiz of Cohen, Milstein, Hausfeld & Toll ("Cohen, Milstein") as associate counsel on behalf of the class. The Court holds in abeyance the appointment of liaison counsel.

I

The Court finds that proposed lead plaintiffs Ms. Raider, Mr. Van Sickle, and Ms. Zeigler adequately represent the interests of the putative class.² The Court is not aware of any interests of these proposed lead plaintiffs that are atypical of or antagonistic to those of the class. Thus, the Court hereby orders the appointment of Ms. Raider, Mr. Van Sickle, and Ms. Zeigler as lead plaintiffs.

II

The Court finds that the structuring of multiple plaintiffs' counsel is essential to avoid unnecessary costs and duplicative activity by counsel for the consolidated putative class. See Howard B. Newberg and Alba Conte, Newberg on Class Actions § 9.06, at 9-14 (3d ed. 1992). Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(a), the Court "may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(c)(16) (explaining that the Court may hold conferences on and take appropriate action with respect to any matters that “may facilitate the just, speedy, and inexpensive disposition of the action”).

² The Court declines to undertake, at this stage of the litigation, a detailed analysis regarding whether the proposed lead plaintiffs satisfy the requirements of Fed. R. of Civ. P. 23. Rule 23(a) provides that a party may serve as a class representative only if the following four requirements are met: (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class; (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a). Many courts agree, however, that a "wide-ranging analysis under Rule 23 is not appropriate and should be left for consideration of a motion for class certification. This inquiry, therefore, focuses on the qualities of the class representatives enumerated in Rule 23(a)(3) and 23(a)(4)." Lax, 1997 WL 461036, at *6 (internal quotations omitted); see also Microstrategy, 110 F. Supp. 2d 427; Aronson, 79 F. Supp. 2d at 1158 (citations omitted) (holding that, at the lead plaintiff appointment stage, "all that is required is a 'preliminary showing' that the lead plaintiff's claims are typical and adequate.").

The appointment of separate lead counsel, liaison counsel, or executive committees for plaintiffs is an issue that is directed to the sound discretion of the trial court so that it may exercise its inherent managerial powers. See In re Air Crash Disaster at Florida Everglades, 549 F.2d 1006, 1014 (5th Cir. 1977) (“It is not open to serious question that a federal court in a complex, consolidated case may designate one attorney or set of attorneys to handle pre-trial activity on aspects of the case where the interests of all co-parties coincide.”); In re Joint E. and S. Dists. Asbestos Litig., 132 F.R.D. 332, 333 (S.D.N.Y. 1990) (“[T]he court has power to act prior to addressing the merits of the class certification motion; it may appoint counsel to represent the proposed class.”).

In appointing lead counsel, “the overriding interest of the Court . . . is the vigorous protection of the rights of the . . . class.” United States Trust Co. of New York v. Alpert, 163 F.R.D. 409, 423 (S.D.N.Y. 1995) (quoting Percodani v. Riker-Maxson Corp., 51 F.R.D. 26 (S.D.N.Y. 1970)). Courts generally consider:

the attorney’s experience; the attorney’s skills and acumen; the attorney’s resources, including staff; the attorney’s reputation in the field; and the attorney’s performance through the litigation to date. In addition, counsel’s adequate representation of a class in the past is good evidence that she will adequately represent the class now.

United States Trust Co., 163 F.R.D. at 422-23 (citations omitted). Attorneys who are appointed or approved by the court to serve as designated counsel must have the “resources, commitment, and the qualifications to accomplish the assigned tasks.” Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) § 20.224 (1995).

The Court finds that the lead counsel proposed by Ms. Raider, Mr. Van Sickle, and Ms. Zeigler, Keller Rohrback, is experienced and qualified counsel who is generally able to conduct the litigation as lead counsel on behalf of the putative class. Keller Rohrback has significant experience in ERISA litigation, serving as co-lead counsel in the Enron ERISA litigation, the Lucent ERISA litigation, and the Providian ERISA litigation, and experience in complex class action litigation in other areas of the law. Mr. Sarko's presentation at the August 16, 2002 hearing before the Court evidences Keller Rohrback's ability to adequately represent the class. Moreover, Keller Rohrback has represented to the Court that the firm is "prepared to be the anchor for funding this litigation," indicating the financial commitment and resources necessary to prosecute the action on behalf of the class. For these reasons, the Court hereby appoints Keller Rohrback as lead counsel for the putative class.

Likewise, the Court finds that Cohen, Milstein is also qualified and experienced counsel with significant leadership experience in complex class action litigation. The Court further finds that Mr. Machiz, as the former chief ERISA lawyer for the Department of Labor ("DOL"), responsible for all ERISA enforcement litigation on behalf of the DOL, can provide valuable ERISA expertise for the benefit of the class. Moreover, the Court finds that the mutual respect and cooperation between Keller Rohrback and Cohen, Milstein, which was demonstrated at the August 16, 2002 hearing before the Court, makes Cohen, Milstein particularly suitable to serve as associate counsel under the direction of Keller Rohrback. For these reasons, the Court hereby appoints Cohen, Milstein as associate counsel for the putative class.

Certain lead plaintiff movants have proposed the creation of a steering committee of law firms or, alternatively, a larger panel of associate counsel. The Court, however, finds that, under the circumstances of this case, the interests of the putative class will be adequately represented through the appointment of lead counsel and associate counsel, without the need for additional counsel at this time.³ See Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) § 20.22 (1995) ("Because the appointment of committees of counsel can lead to substantially increased costs, they should not be made unless needed."); see also United States Trust Co. of New York v. Alpert, 163 F.R.D. 409 (S.D.N.Y. 1995) (declining to appoint co-lead counsel where lead counsel possessed the ability commitment and resources to prosecute the action and where it "would only cost the class members additional fees and expenses and further deplete [any recovery]"); In re "Agent Orange" Prod. Liab. Litig., 534 F. Supp. 1046, 1052-53 (E.D.N.Y. 1982) (declining to appoint steering committee where lead counsel was qualified, willing, and capable of prosecuting the claims).

III

A. Responsibilities of Lead Counsel

Keller Rohrback, as lead counsel, shall direct and coordinate the prosecution of Plaintiffs' claims in the consolidated action and shall be responsible for ensuring that the case is effectively and efficiently prosecuted on behalf of the putative class. In this regard, Keller Rohrback shall have the responsibility of:

1. Determining the scope, order and conduct of all discovery proceedings;
2. Assigning work to associate counsel and liaison counsel as appropriate;
3. Initiating, responding to, briefing, and arguing dispositive motions;
4. Retaining experts;
5. Conducting settlement negotiations; and
6. Collecting detailed time and expense records from all plaintiffs' counsel.

Keller Rohrback shall communicate directly with lead plaintiffs and also with members of the putative class. Keller Rohrback shall provide the putative class regular updates, including copies of key filings and all court orders in the case. Keller Rohrback is ultimately responsible for ensuring that the putative class has the financial and legal resources to litigate this case to conclusion.

³ Although the Court anticipates appointing liaison counsel in this litigation, the designation of such counsel is currently held in abeyance.

B. Responsibilities of Associate Counsel

Cohen, Milstein, as associate counsel, shall assist and act at the direction of Keller Rohrback in the conduct of the litigation. Cohen, Milstein shall be responsible for consulting with Keller Rohrback on all assigned litigation matters and the performance of such work assignments as delegated by Keller Rohrback. Delegated tasks may include, for example, reviewing and reporting on certain documents, filing and arguing certain motions, preparing and defending certain groups of fact and expert witnesses, researching and briefing issues relating to dispositive motions, analyzing and briefing any disputes regarding insurance coverage, preparing documents and witness for trial, presenting evidence at trial.

C. Responsibilities of Liaison Counsel

Once appointed, liaison counsel shall assist and act under the direction of Keller Rohrback in the conduct of the litigation. Liaison counsel, like associate counsel, shall be responsible for consulting with Keller Rohrback on all assigned litigation matters and the performance of such delegated work assignments. In addition to any such delegated tasks, liaison counsel shall also have the specific responsibility on behalf of Plaintiffs for:

1. Serving as the primary interface with the Court, particularly with regard to the Court-administered settlement process;
2. Communicating with the Court and other counsel, including receipt and distribution of notices, orders and motions on behalf of the leadership structure;
3. Handling hearings before the Magistrate Judge regarding discovery and certain emergency matters; and
4. Coordinating with lead counsel in resolving scheduling conflicts.

IV

The Court recognizes that any compensation that might be awarded to Plaintiffs' counsel, if successful in this litigation, must be determined by the Court to be fair and appropriate at the time the case is resolved. The proposed compensation structures of the lead plaintiff movants, however, will inform any future determination by the Court of reasonableness. In this regard, designated counsel shall render services as economically as possible under the circumstances. Counsel should limit the number of persons attending conferences and depositions, writing briefs, and performing other tasks. Compensation will not be approved for unnecessary or duplicative activities or services. In this regard, the Court hereby directs all counsel, whether lead counsel, associate counsel, or liaison counsel, to keep detailed time records in order that, if necessary, the Court may review the time spent and the tasks engaged in by each counsel.

Keller Rohrback and Cohen, Milstein have proposed to the Court that costs be reimbursed on a "special reduced basis." Specifically, Keller Rohrback and Cohen, Milstein proposed the following:

- (1) Reducing their normal in-house copying charges to 15 cents per page;
- (2) Billing at cost all telephone, telecopy, audiovisual, exhibit materials, and document imaging charges;
- (3) Charging only "coach," and not first or business class airfare;
- (4) Absorbing all secretarial and clerical overtime without cost to the class;
- (5) Booking travel, meal and hotel accommodations on an economical basis; and
- (6) Carefully negotiating transcript costs.

The Court finds that such commitments to cost savings are in the best interest of the putative class, and thus hereby orders that the costs incurred by counsel conform to the above proposed "special reductions."

V

On August 26, 2002, the parties filed a Joint Status Report, which included a proposed schedule that would govern the timing of submissions following the entry of the Court's order appointing lead plaintiff and lead counsel. Pursuant to the appointment of Ms. Raider, Mr. Van Sickle, and Ms. Zeigler as lead plaintiffs and Keller Rohrback as lead counsel on behalf of the putative class, and in accordance with the parties' proposed schedule, the Court hereby sets the following schedule:

Plaintiffs to provide Defendants with a list of requested documents to be produced by Defendants in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a):	November 4, 2002
